1. I lie south of Europe and across the Mediterranean Sea. The world's longest river flows through me. Which Continent Am I?

2. I lie mostly in the Southern Hemisphere, and I am both a country and a continent. Which Continent Am I?

Puzzle # 5

CONTINENT TRAIL

Each line presents a series of monochrome “tags”. Your task is to associate each line with one specific continent (without repeating any).

(A) [Mountain] [Bamboo] [Panda] [Pagoda]

(B) [Giraffe] [Savanna] [Dune] [Drums]

(C) [Ice] [Penguin] [Blizzard] [Glacier]

(D) [Kangaroo] [Outback] [Eucalyptus] [Coral]

Hint: Consider the distinctive wildlife, landscapes, or landmarks associated with each continent.

Puzzle # 6

GEO CHANT

What continent is hidden within these lines?

*Lions stalk across ancient plains,
Giraffes nibble foliage from acacia trees,
Rhinos roam riverside resting places,
Elephants trumpet in immense herds,
Hippos bathe calmly in cool waters,
Cheetahs sprint after agile prey.*

Hint: Pay attention to a certain word position in each line—its first letter may reveal more than the imagery itself.

Puzzle # 7

TRAVELLER'S DIARY

Day 3:

After weeks of wandering, I finally stepped onto the world's largest continent. Here, snow-capped peaks rise in the Himalayas, while deserts stretch endlessly in the Gobi. Traders once crossed the Silk _____ to bring spices, silk, and stories from East to West.

Find the missing word, and where am I travelling?
